NEWLANDS DEFENDING DEMO-CRATS.

Congressman Newlands seems to be kicking up a small row in Congress over more than one thing, but there is evidently method in his madness. He is reported to be defending the Democrats in the House upon their manifest opposition to the Philippine war, but mark you he makes a point which enlarges his irrigation scheme. There is nothing mean in the work of Congressman Newlands when, as a silver man, he is defending Democrats in the House.

There is such a thing as a tug one hand to wash the other, which largely illustrates the work of Hon. F. G.
Newlands when defending Democrats.
His friends have not given him any credit for using cunning. He is above us, but there is not a doubt about his willingness to use logic in favor of Democrats when it will serve his purpose, which is highly legitimate he should do.

He has his artillery trained on a water spout which he would like to control in the interest of the arid west.
He is sailing his statesmanship in its direction with a full purpose to control the water there is in it to the advantage of the people on board his ship, which is as large as the great barron, including its bulwarks which are not small things in themselves.

Mr. Newlands argues that the Democrats are opposed to the Philippine war on the ground that they do not favor building an empire abroad while domestic interests are suffering. The argument is well put in favor of the Democrats and is equally well put in favor of Mr. Newland's scheme for the irrigation of the mountain west.

The domestic interests of the country are neglected while we are spending millions in money on the prosecution of a war. The country and its money are engaged in building an empire in the Philippines when both should be engaged in building an empire at home by expending money to control the flood and other waters in the big west, where homes can be secured for the people which are very much needed at this time to supply the demand there is for them on the North American continent, more particularly that portion of it that is within the boundaries of Uncle Sam's part of it.

It is not surprising that Mr. Newlands should come with his logic to the defense of the Democrats, who are always engaged in maintaining the interests of the great body of the people at home and abroad, when he has to hedge to procure a little money to build a few dams that will hold water for future use on dry lands and for a thirsty people, while millions after millions are expended to maintain a precarious footing in the Malay archipelago, eight thousand miles away in the tropics.

Mr. Newlands does not seem to be in the least fastidious about the weapons he uses, as he appears to be very much like Samson, who used anything there was in sight when he slew the Philistines with the jaw-bone of an ass. The writer would like to have it understood that a Democrat is not any part of an ass, as he is a Democrat himself.

It was noticed some time ago that Mr. Newland's bill had been allowed by the committee, and from a dispatch to the JOURNAL yesterday morning it was learned that a favorable report on the bill was authorized that day.
Should those who have taken up the fight for more water for irrigation continues to the end of the fight, there will be more water secured for domestic use than there is at present.

TAXATION OF MINING CLAIMS.

The report of business in the Senate published yesterday in the JOURNAL contains a notice of a bill introduced by Mr. Trenton providing for taxing unpatented mining claims at ten dollars per acre, which would make the usual sized mining claim subject to a tax of two hundred dollars per year.
The tax will be very unpopular, should it be a cold proposition to raise money to pay salaries and general expenses.
It has the appearance of a tax to punish prospectors.

The value of the claim does not enter into the tax consideration, which makes it very arbitrary upon its face.
The writer does not understand from the meager information in his posses-tion the object there is to be secured by placing a tax on unpatented mining claims.

It is possible that the object of the bill may be the punishment of prospectors, whose calling has been regarded hitherto as respectable. Some prospectors have become disgusted with himself, it may be, who has determined as a matter of pure philanthropy to prevent others from becoming similarly effected. The bill, as a pure proposition to produce revenue, should have no standing among men who are acquainted with mining and the reserved rights of miners in California and Nevada.
There is another mystery about taxing unpatented mining claims connected with the report, that the writer cannot reconcile with the law as he understands it, which is that United States lands are not subject to taxation by States and Territories. The State of Nevada has succeeded in getting away from the law as it is by taxing the improvements upon United States lands, thereby making a pretense of not taxing the land. Should there be an exception making mining claims when unpatented subject to taxation, it is not generally known by the public.

Hassell is Found Guilty.

On the second trial of W. F. Hassell, charged with obtaining money under false pretense, a jury at 9:30 last evening returned a verdict of guilty as charged. This is the case wherein a man claiming to be a member in good standing of a certain beneficial society raised funds to sport on, claiming he had a bank fund at Fort Worth, Tex., to cover all indebtedness of his own making. Eight drafts were dishonored, and hence the late proceeding in law.

A Worthy Man Attacked.

The last issue of the Wadsworth Dispatch contained scurrilous innuendo and abuse directed toward Orvis Hing, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. No one who knows Mr.
Hing would deem a denial of the Dispatch article necessary.
It is enough said that Professor Hing is the soul of philanthropy and honor and to connect him with a questionable financial transaction is criminal assuinity.

A Law That Will Benefit.

In the editorial column is an article criticizing a bill alleged to have been introduced in the legislature taxing unpatented mining claims. It was based upon the JOURNAL's Carson report, which was in error. A member of the legislature stated in this office last night that the bill referred to patented claims. This changes the situation. The measure is a wise one, indeed.

Golf Before a Mirror.

One of the chief teachings in the religion of style is that to attain to ortho-doxy it is necessary or at least desirable to practice daily in front of a looking glass so as to make sure that all the motions of the true style are being correctly carried out.
This always appeared to me a very "hard saying" until I had consulted W.
G. Grace, John Roberts, C. B. Fry, K.
S. Ranjitsingh, H. K. Foster, Kraenz-lein, E. C. Bredin and other champions of sport.
All the above were unanimous in at-tributing the high degree of skill to which they have attained in various games and sports to the fact of their having devoted many hours a day from a very early stage of their careers to attitudinizing in front of looking glasses in their bedrooms.—Golf Illustrated.

The Oldest Visiting Card.

The state archives of Venice are said to possess the oldest visiting card of which there is any record, of course leaving aside the probable use of such articles for some thousands of years in China. Giacomo Contarini, professor at the University of Padua, sent the card in question as a curiosity to a Venetian friend, saying that the German students who came to Italy had the elegant and laudable custom of leaving such little cards, with their name and place of origin, at the houses of friends when they called and found them absent. The card referred to bears a coat of arms with the motto, "Espero me comfort." and beneath, "Joannes West-erhof Westphalus scribat Patavii 4 Martii 1560."—London Tablet.

His Idea of an Alibi.

A taleman who was called in a murder trial in a certain state was asked whether he had any prejudice against an alibi plea on the part of a man accused of crime. The taleman replied that he had not.
"Do you fully understand what is meant by the term alibi?" he was asked.
"I think I do; yes, sir."
"What do you understand by it?" The taleman reflected a moment and then, with a hesitancy indicative of graveness, replied, "An alibi is when the fellow who did it, wasn't there."

STUDENTS ON THE HONOR ROLL

Monthly Report of the Principal of the Reno Public Schools.

To the Honorable Board of School Trustees—GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to present herewith my report for the school month ending February 1, 1901.

The semi-annual examinations, which took place the last week in January, developed some surprises. A number of pupils who had been going along somewhat listlessly, realized that to get on in our schools there must be persevering, earnest and thorough work. It was really fortunate for them that there was so good an opportunity so early in the year to measure up their work, for many of them have since begun more earnest study.

A number of pupils distinguished themselves and a very large majority in most of the grades made good records.

The promotions into the Junior grade, February 1st, would make the total enrollment of the high school 99, if all should continue. This is by far the largest number in our history and indicates a growing desire in the community for high school training and growth in school population.

Claud Cave, convicted of disturbing the peace, was given a chance to report on a fine. He reported, but didn't produce, and was sent out of town on the first train.

Four young fellows were pulled in for making a wrong guess as to what constituted a legitimate night's lodging, and were allowed to go on their several promises to appear and tell the court what a good night's lodging looked like.

The charge of vagrancy was preferred against five husky lads whose crime was that they were found roaming in the immediate neighborhood of a bridge east of town. They were released on their promise to appear when wanted.

REFERENDUM DOLLARS

The Unique Coins Which Uncle Sam Didn't Take a Fancy to

There are five of the famous "referendum" dollars in Reno. They are cherished possessions of Aleck Dromick, Charles May, Spiro Francovich, A. Novocovich and Wm. Conover.

These dollars were coined at a mine in the Rocky mountains. Each weighs an ounce. They are of pure silver, octagonal and beautifully stamped and milled.

The obverse side reads: "Joseph Leiber's referendum souvenir, 1 oz. coin, silver price at $1.25, manufactured at Victor, Colo., 1900."

On the reverse side is the inscription: "Pike's Peak silver mint, a commodity; will receive in exchange for merchandise at A. B. Bumsteads."

The obverse bears the coat of arms of Colorado and the reverse a picture of Pike's Peak stamped in the metal. Each coin bears a mint number. Mr. May's is 620 and was one of the last coined.

Notwithstanding the differentiation from the flat silver dollar, Uncle Sam closed up this mint and set down on the proposition, because he feared that the referendum dollars would get into general circulation and run opposition to government money.

Some day these eight sided coins will bear a big premium.

Many Things
Are Meant
By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they advertise GOOD GROCERIES no mention is made of PRICE. When price is mentioned QUALITY IS OVER-LOOKED. Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.

We preach the Three Plain Virtues of Groceries—
Quality
Quantity
Price
They are mentioned in their regular order and the happy combination is causing hosts of pleased patrons at our store.
